Courses

Courses developed and taught at US institutions:

BC: Boston College; F/W/S/Su: fall/winter/spring/summer

Introductory level

- Introduction to Linguistics (“General Linguistics” at BC)
BC S26, F25, F24; Carleton F23, W24, Yale Su19
- Writing Systems of the World: BC F24
- Language in the United States: Carleton S24

Mid-level undergraduate

- Phonetics & Phonology: CC F23; BC S26, S25
- Historical Linguistics: BC S25
- Linguistics & Artificial Intelligence: BC F25

Advanced undergraduate or graduate level

- The Linguistic Structure of Tibetan: BC S25
- Laboratory Phonology: Carleton W24
- The Phonetics-Phonology Interface: Yale S21

At Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf:

- Introduction to English Linguistics, Part II. Summer 2023.
- Laboratory Phonology (advanced seminar). Summer 2023.
- Introduction to English Linguistics, Part I. Winter 2022/2023.
- Laboratory Phonology (method seminar). Winter 2022/2023.
- Experimental Phonetics (M.A. seminar). Summer 2022.
- Languages of the United States (advanced seminar). Summer 2022.
- The Phonetics-Phonology Interface (advanced seminar). Winter 2021/2022.
- Morphology/Word-Formation (intermediate seminar). Winter 2021/2022.

As Teaching Assistant at Yale University:

- Language and Mind. Fall 2020. Instructor: Maria Piñango
- Grammatical Diversity in U.S. English. Spring 2020. Instructor: Raffaella Zanuttini
- Introduction to Linguistics, Fall 2019. Instructor: Jason Shaw
- General Phonetics, Spring 2018. Instructor: Jonathan Manker
- Introduction to Linguistics, Fall 2017. Instructors: Jim Wood, Matt Barros
- General Phonetics, Spring 2017. Instructor: Jason Shaw
- Introduction to Phonological Analysis, Fall 2016. Instructor: Ryan Bennett

Supervisions

Posson, Emily. 2024. M.A. Thesis, Exploring Consonant Gradation in Northern Sámi: A Dialectal Investigation. University of Minnesota.

Choo, Mollie. 2024. B.A. Thesis, Phonological variation in Chicano English coronal fricative devoicing. Carleton College.

Clauss, Margie and Jyothi Nellakra. Winter 2023. Student Research Partnership: Comparing practices for identifying speech gestures. Carleton College Humanities Center.

Weber, Julika. 2023. M.A. Thesis: Phonological accommodation in the L2. Heinrich Heine University.

Stein, Anna Sophia. 2023. B.A. Thesis, Modeling reduction with Naïve Discriminative Learning. Heinrich Heine University. (co-advised with Kevin Tang)

Nguyen, Lena. 2023. B.A. Thesis: The Stylistics of Morrison and Hurston - A comparative and corpus-based style analysis of African-American fiction. Heinrich Heine University. (second reader)

Smith, Slater. 2021. B.A. Thesis: Sounds in flux: modeling post-vocalic laryngeals in Mayan languages. Yale University. (second reader)

Grants and Awards

Boston College “Undergraduate Research Fellowships”

Students: Maura Jaye, Caroline Kowalski (Summer 2025); Maura Jaye (Fall 2025)

Summer 2025: 350 hours ($5583); Fall 2025: 140 hours ($2233); Spring 2026: 140 hours ($2233)

Carleton College Humanities Center “Student Research Partnership”

Title: Comparing practices for identifying speech gestures

Student co-applicants: Jyothi Nellakra, Margie Clauss

Awarded October 2023; November 2023-January 2024 (Carleton’s 6-week winter break)

$1620 USD

Heinrich Heine University “E-Learning Förderfonds”

Title: Choose Your Own Adventure: Teleporting to a Virtual Phonetics Laboratory

Role: Co-applicant (with Kevin Tang and Eoin O’Reilly¹)

Awarded February 2023; 2023-2024

9,727.78 EUR

Heinrich Heine University “E-Learning Förderfonds”

Title: Interactive web-based review units for phonetics and phonology

Role: Co-applicant (with Kevin Tang and Akhilesh Kakolu Ramarao¹)

Awarded February 2022; 2022-2023

9,423.69 EUR

National Science Foundation

Title: Doctoral Dissertation Research: Articulatory and Corpus Study of Relative Timing among Consonants, Vowels, and Tones in Tibetan.

Role: Co-Principal Investigator; PI: Jason Shaw

Awarded July 2019; 2019-2022

$9,903.55 USD

University Fellowship. Yale University. 2014-2021

South Asia Council Field Research Award. Yale University. July 2014
